

Archangel Michael message re the Conscious Convergence – July 17 – 18, 2010

Today is Sunday, 18 July 2010 and I am here to take a message from Archangel Michael, because yesterday morning Carolyn and I were discussing the event known as the Conscious Convergence, which is reported by some to be happening over these two days, and I noticed it in the monthly message for July from Celia Fenn <http://starchildglobal.com/> who channels Archangel Michael and for whom I have a great deal of respect and so I asked him about this and he came forth and said he wanted to share a message in regard to this, and so this is what he has to say;

The Conscious Convergence, as it has been called is an important marker. It is the moment when many of the pieces of the puzzle are coming together. There has been much work done to prepare the path to the events unfolding, beginning with that solstice of December 2012, and really these efforts began in earnest with the Harmonic Convergence in 1987, and the last two years in particular have seen a very rapid acceleration of the energies that are coming to the planet to assist in this preparation process. Additionally, there has been quite a bit of work undertaken in regard to reactivating key crystals, key pyramids around the world and most of this work has been undertaken by that one who calls himself The Earth-Keeper <http://www.earth-keeper.com/> because indeed he has been an Earth-Keeper over many lifetimes.

So this is the moment when there is a gathering together of all of those pieces of the puzzle. They are coming together to form a platform, energetically speaking to enable humanity to step forth into the great changes which will unfold upon your planet between now and that December 2012 solstice. So this is an important event and it is not a moment when powerful energies are coming forth, though indeed the gathering of those of humanity who have an interest in this to acknowledge this date have in fact opened a door for some beautiful reinforcing energies to come to the planet, this moment is more about this coalescing, this coming together of all of these pieces that have been coming to the planet. So this term Conscious Convergence is very relevant, very relevant to what is happening in this moment; and so I wanted to come forth and acknowledge it in this way and so there is a marker placed upon the 2012 Timeline Page http://www.the2012countdown.com/The\_2012\_Time\_Line.php acknowledging this date. And so it is.
