

Full moon messages for October 2010

Today is October 19, 2010 and Carolyn and I are here to take the messages for this full moon for October, which is on the 22nd and the 23rd, depending on where you are located, and the two coming forth today are Jeshua and Mary Magdalene, and Jeshua will begin proceedings as it were, and so let us see what he has to say.

My dear friends, I want to share with you details of what will be a momentous moment, a momentous moment because it is that moment when so many threads that we have been trying to pull together are finally coming together. There have been beings, seemingly of the light that have been resisting all that we have been trying to bring forth to support humanity. Many of these beings have been part of the spiritual hierarchy, and I will say to you that they are no longer part of the spiritual hierarchy. It has become clear to many that these beings have an agenda which is not in alignment with the coming forth of Ascension on planet Earth as has been planned for early 2013 and all that needs to be done to prepare for this time, and so the step has been taken to remove all of them from any involvement with the spiritual hierarchy or indeed any involvement with this mission on any level whatsoever.

I cannot tell you how complex picking apart the interference of the dark and those who would support their interests has been. It has been seemingly endless, incredibly intricate and very, very difficult and I am not coming forth in this moment to say that I am completely confident that all has been dealt with. But what I can say is that for the first time we have all of those of the light that have any involvement whatsoever with the unfolding of the preparation for Ascension and the Ascension event itself fully lined up with how this needs to proceed from this moment. In saying this, I will say to you that very powerful energies are being sent forth with this full moon to ensure as best as is possible that the rejuvenation process will begin upon your planet with these energies. As many of you will recognise, I have said this several times already. However, there is a major difference with this event, and once more I am not saying to you that I am guaranteeing that it will be so. But what I am saying to you is that the intention for it to be so from all aspects of the light has never been clearer or more committed, and this includes a major campaign to ensure that all activity and interference by those intransigent ones of the dark is eliminated; and so that my friends is the primary focus of this event. There are other energies which are coming forth with this full moon, but there is nothing more important for the preparation of humanity for those events in your near future than the coming forth of the rejuvenation process. And so it is.

Carolyn - Thank you, Jeshua. And now Mary Magdalene stands in front of me, and she is showing herself to me. I'm looking at her very expressive eyes, her lovely complexion. There is a great sincerity in her face; love, compassion. There is a stillness about her. You might call it peace, you might call it self-assuredness. You just must be attracted to her as she gazes upon you. She's not someone you would ignore when you saw her. First, there's something about her that just stops you as if you're stunned. It is this gentleness, this I said earlier, peace. It's even something deeper than that, if you can imagine something deeper than peace. It is this well of knowledge that runs deep. It is like she is connected to the very highest place of information and she stands here in what appears to be a great significance of ability. I guess I could sum it up by saying she's regal. And what she says;

I could give you many messages, I could tell you so much, yet I have just a short message. We love you, we stand here in service and we're doing everything that we can to bring forth the very best for you. We came 2,000 years ago to serve and we are standing here again ready to serve, to bring forth the greatest grandeur that the Earth has ever seen; and it is in that grandeur, that I stand in but a reflection of it, and I say, this we bring to you. And that is so.

Blessings, Joy, Love and Peace.
