

Messages for July 11 2010 solar eclipse

July 7, 2010

Today is Wednesday, 7 July 2010 and Carolyn and I are here to take the messages in relation to the coming solar eclipse and new moon on 11 July (see this at <http://www.shadowandsubstance.com/2010%200711/SA.html> ) and Jeshua wishes to come forth first and to give his message to me, and he is here and he is saying;

This new moon and solar eclipse are a powerful event and it begins to sound a little like a broken record as I keep saying those words as we approach each of these events, however that is the truth of the matter as these energies build up in preparation for those energies of the solstice of December 2012. These energies are building one upon another as Mother Mary has said like stair steps, each one building upon those which have gone before; and there is a slight difference in the nature of these steps and the ones you find in a stair in the sense that these steps get larger each time, though in a sense no more powerful than the energies that came with the recent solstice. The impact and the complexity of what is unfolding is far greater with each step, so the power is truly extraordinary and will continue to be so as we move forward. We are in a special time. There have been several steps along the way this year as we have begun the preparation in earnest, as we have seen the triggers come forth that will bring the change that will unfold, that has begun to unfold in your world and this event progresses this even further.

The events beginning with the solstice and progressing through to the end of July are all events which occur within the span of the Grand Cross, and you could say this event perhaps is the event which utilises the power of the Grand Cross the most. This Grand Cross really portends great change and your astrologers have been saying this, and so this solar eclipse will bring forth new energies that will further awaken and enhance the abilities of the human being to reclaim their skills and abilities.

They will also bring forth further powerful energies to curtail the impact of the beings of the dark upon your planet and indeed upon humanity. These energies will, you could say cement the work that began with the solstice of June by bringing forth additional aspects that will close doors that remained open with that solstice. These are energies that in ways were interfered with you could say, that limited the power of that solstice. Some of the remaining energies came through with the full moon in June and the last of them are coming through with this solar eclipse in July. So what we will be seeing with this event is the closing of the last of the doors that those of the dark have managed to keep open. These energies will, without question close these remaining doors. So I mention this to you because we have spoken about bringing the oil spill to an end and it has not happened as you know, and this has been because of the interference with the energies that have been brought forth. Those of the dark have been very committed to their path and to interfering with the broader plans of Creation. This interference is being brought to an end. That I assure you and so we'll see the final pieces of the puzzle fall into place with these energies of this solar eclipse. And so it is.

Carolyn - And now Mother Mary comes forth. Her garments today are very brilliant, and as her wavy hair falls down upon her shoulders, it ends in a curl. There is this great peace in her countenance and her eyes are shining and even her robes are shining today, and she says;

It's time to turn on the brilliance of who we are; all of us. There is a gateway that has been shut down for each individual soul, so that all of the luminescence of your soul does not shine forth, so that it can actually be seen on your physical plane; and I have come to tell you this will occur. It's not going to occur immediately, but there will be a growing light surrounding you because of several reasons. Energy allows movement from one place to another. It's a vibratory rate that applies to this movement and as the energy vibrates it is like it wakes up the energy in the physical body. The soul will then be able to express more of what it is energetically and it will be able to express it in your physical plane.

It was like this way in Atlantis in the early days. You could actually see the light as it poured through the skin and even entered the garments, the threads in the robes, so that even the robes shone forth in the brilliance of their light. When you heard of these things in Scripture, it was not made up. They were documenting something real; garments shining like the Sun, the brilliance of the Sun. It is the life of the soul shining through, so that you can see it in your plane, and I have chosen to illustrate myself this way today so Carolyn can be one who will see this also and tell you about it. I want you to understand that movement is taking place, advancement is taking place, and the basis of that advancement is the cells in your physical level, they are moving apart to allow more of the energy to work its way through to the surface.

We talked about that at another moment, how energy was so compacted in the third dimension and it is like a lid of the box being taken off the box and the butterfly coming forth in the brilliance of its arraignment. You will all be doing this soon. The basis is being worked upon. You can't feel it or see it, but there is more space between the cells at the moment. This is also room for choice and the results of that choice and it will be brilliant if you just remember who you are. It is as if there is a cook in the kitchen and a pot on the stove and the cook stirs the pot as the heat comes forth and it is released into the room with this grand scent of all of the ingredients coming together and forming something delicious; and it is the same with you, my friends. I have dressed for the occasion and I expect you to put on your wedding garbs also, because very soon it will be time for the celebration, the party if you will. Be first in line and join me. It is your Mother.
