

Jeshua and Mother Mary re the January 15th, 2010 Solar Eclipse

Jeshua

This is an event of great power. It is the first important event of this New Year, a year which, in and of itself is a year of great power, a year of great change, a year of great preparation for what awaits humanity at the end of 2012 and beyond. And so, as we have seen with so many events such as this over the last two years in particular, this gateway will be utilised to bring forth important new energies to assist in the preparation of humanity and the planet, so that all is in readiness for that event you know of as 2012. As you know, an event such as this, where you have a Solar Eclipse is a particularly powerful gateway; much more powerful than, for example, an ordinary new moon or indeed more powerful than an equinox or a solstice. It is indeed a powerful gateway, a powerful event and there are other alignments which are also important in setting up the pattern, you could say, that is enabling the energies to come forth at this time, however we will not go into those other supporting alignments. Some astrologers have spoken about these other alignments and these can be searched out if it is of interest to the listener.

However, what is important from our perspective is what these energies are about and what they will do to assist in the preparation that I have spoken of, and these particular energies open a new doorway for humanity. They begin the process in earnest that will unfold between this date and the end of 2012. They begin in earnest the steps that humanity needs to take to be ready. They begin in earnest the clearing of the control patterns that have been so thoroughly entrenched by the dark upon your planet; the control systems that have been in place to control finance, to control oil, to control energy of all sorts upon your planet; to in truth control the majority of the wealth which is available, the majority of the resources. All of that infrastructure will begin to unravel and unravel quickly as result of these energies.

We mentioned with one of the earlier recent events that it would be like disconnecting such behaviours from the electrical grid, as if they no longer had power. Well, this event does even more than that. It adds a positive force for the, shall we say, destructuring of this power structure and the bringing forth of the knowledge and understanding and the spiritual underpinnings to the majority of humanity relating to what is unfolding at the end of 2012. These energies begin in earnest that preparation process. They give an enormous boost to the opening up of the processes that are required to prepare for that event you know as 2012.

As we have spoken about before, there are three key steps that need to be undertaken. The first is to acknowledge your Creator. To acknowledge your Creator is the owner of the particles that have been used to create your soul. To acknowledge that the Creator has loaned those particles to you, has created your soul, you could say, and so you need to acknowledge this relationship.

The second is to clear all of your negative karmic past energies and the third is to rejuvenate your physical body; and it is time for the evidence of how to go about this work to come forth in the world and then, on the basis of that evidence, for this work to begin in earnest. And these energies provide an enormous propulsion, you could say, for this work to begin. It is an enormous propulsion for this work to begin in earnest, and so I say to you, it will not be long before you see this evidence of rejuvenation be present in your midst. It will not be long and when it comes forth, the process of clearing your past karmic energies and beginning the process of rejuvenation for those of humanity that have chosen this path, it will all begin in earnest and with great speed. And so I cannot emphasise too strongly the power of this event to begin the extraordinary transformation which will occur upon your planet between now and the end of 2012, that appointment with destiny, you could say, that occurs at the solstice of December 2012.

And make no mistake; there are many who are saying that that event at the end of the Mayan calendar, the timing of the ending of the Mayan calendar is but a general marker of this time. It is not marking a specific event, and if anyone has truly studied the Mayan calendar, they will know that that is a calendar that contains great accuracy. It continues to forecast such events as this one; that is, eclipses and of course the solstices and equinoxes. It continues to forecast these events with great accuracy and so its ending on that date is no accident. It, too, will be an extraordinary gateway, a gateway that will make events such as this one look like a Sunday school picnic, to use your vernacular. The power that will come through that gateway is unimaginable. It is not smeared out in time. It is an event that will occur over three days beginning on 21 December. It is not smeared out over time. It is very specific and very focused. That is the nature of these gateways and you will understand this if you have been listening to these messages for any length of time. So make no mistake, it is not a smeared out event as so many are saying. It is very focused and so is this event, this solar eclipse, this annular solar eclipse which is bringing forth such energy from your sun. Your sun is acting as the primary gateway, as I said assisted by other alignments in the cosmos.

And so I suggest that you watch what unfolds in the coming future. Much will unfold as a result of these energies coming to your planet. And so it is.

Mother Mary

My son Jeshua has provided you with a wonderful overview of what is unfolding and I want to reassure you that, whilst this message from my son carried great power and great clarity, it is not a moment that should generate fear in anyone. There is no reason to fear. So much preparation has been done. All of the mechanisms are in place that will come forth to ensure that every last human being that chooses to ascend will have access to the necessary tools and opportunities.

All will be made available. It doesn't matter whether you have money or you do not. It doesn't matter where you are located on this beautiful planet. It doesn't matter whether you live in a third world country in great poverty or you live in great wealth and great richness in one of those so-called Western countries or elsewhere, because the opportunity will be provided to you.

And so what Jeshua spoke about is simply the beginning of this process. It will unfold, it will change in its nature, it will be driven forth by many people as these events unfold, so have no fear. Do not be concerned that you might miss out because you do not have the financial wherewithal to purchase access to some event or whatever. The nature of this will change. Initially it will come forth in a restricted manner and you will see it come forth and it will receive great publicity, but please do not think that you will be neglected, that you will be overlooked, that you will miss out.

And do not get caught up in the fear mongering that so many wish to put forth. Do not be concerned about those who wish to wage war because, as Jeshua said, their activities will be rapidly disempowered. Do not be concerned about the politics in any particular country, about the agendas of various governments because, again, these will be dissolved where they are about manipulating people. And where the individuals are those who are truly walking a spiritual mission to assist humanity by taking on political leadership roles, you will see those beings step forth and begin to unfold what they in truth have come forth to unfold.

So do not be in fear. That is my message to you. Trust that all is in hand, all is well and all will unfold to support you in this extraordinary time that is, in truth, about to begin in earnest with this extraordinary solar eclipse.

I leave you now. This is your Mother.
