

Messages for September 2011 Full Moon

Today is Thursday, 8 September 2011 and we are here to take the messages for the Full Moon for September, which will be on the 12th, and the first that wishes to come forth with a message for this date is Father God, and let us see what he has to say. And he is here, and he is saying;

My dear friends, there have been so many messages that have been given to you about the changes coming forth upon your planet, so many messages about the energies which are being sent which are causing great change, great transformation on so many levels, both within the particles of the planet and within humanity and every other form of life on the planet. And all of this has been so, and there have been great changes and many of you who are listening to these messages carry a sensitivity where you have felt these energies on one level or another, and many of you have awakened to some of your inner skills, aided and abetted by these energies.

There have been many messages that have come forth that have spoken of the rejuvenation of the physical body, and if you understand the work that has been given to these two, you will understand that the rejuvenation of the physical body is an important prerequisite to the unfolding of Ascension. This is because the form of the physical body that existed in Atlantis was in perfection. It did not age as you experience it today, and it truly was a powerful expression of the perfection of the soul, and great light shone forth from within, and as you might recognise this is not how you experience each other at this time. Some of you also understand that at that time there were over 2,000 active DNA strands, not all of them in the physical, many of them in the etheric, and as you know you currently have two; quite a difference.

Part of the work that is involved with Ascension is to reactivate all of that DNA within your current physical body, and in order to bring that forth, the perfection of the physical body needs to be put in place first, and so this is in part what the rejuvenation command is about; not only clearing off those excess years that you may or may not have gathered, but also to bring forth perfection, and to prepare the body for what will unfold during the Ascension process.

So it is necessary, and as you have seen there have been many attempts to bring it forth without success. You might say this is in many ways a replica in miniature of the attempts to bring forth Golden Ages that have occurred over time upon your planet since The Fall in Atlantis. There have been many such attempts, only to see them thwarted by the dark; and this in truth is what has been happening over the last couple of years, as messages have come forth about the bringing forth of that rejuvenation process. So I am giving you this message without any promises.

But what I am saying to you is that the energies of this full moon, indeed along with the energies that have already begun to come to your planet from that sunspot 1283 that has sent an M-class and two X-class flares towards your planet over the last two or so days, that all of these energies are very focused on seeing the rejuvenation process come forth. Will there be further preventions? Perhaps. I think not but I give you no guarantees. I simply share with you what the focus of these energies is. Indeed you might say that sunspot 1283 was set up for the purpose of ensuring that rejuvenation comes forth. Will it be successful? I cannot guarantee it as I said, but I am optimistic about the fact that these energies and the energies of the full moon, which will intermingle with the energies coming from this sunspot, that all of these energies brought together will provide a powerful impetus to see this come forth. And so it is.

Carolyn bringing forth Mary Magdalene:

I have come forth as a representative of the divine feminine. I have many names. There are many pictures drawn of me, some more accurate than others. And I am part of the actual marriage with Jeshua and also participate in the mystical marriage with Jeshua. I make that determination because most today, certainly understand what marriage means in the society, and there is some question as to whether Jeshua and I were married, but I come forth to you and I say yes, we were, and we were very happy.

But I wish to discuss more the mystical aspect; how a man and a woman can come together and be so perfectly aligned with one another that they bring forth a part of themselves that is known to some, but unknown to many. Energetically they entwine their energies around their chakra system so that they bring forth energy which turns into light and moves down a channel through all of those points in the body that are called chakras, and then turns and comes upward again, where the two connect at the third eye, and their energies connect. Not only is there an awareness of the two of them, but their energy travels together in a conscious manner, and it can be directed anywhere in the cosmos.

The knowledge that is brought back feeds the soul, the mind, the personality, as one starts to understand on a very deep level the connective forces of all of creation, even to the point of being able to move together to that central position in the center of the cosmos that we call Prime Creator; some use the term of just God, All-There-Is. So there are different names. Allah. But the love that comes forth is the same for all, regardless of what name you give this force. Prime Creator brought forth our souls, and in that bringing forth of the soul, there were particles of the Creator that make up the soul. And these are not just particles of the Creator, but rather abilities of the Creator; true, in a diluted form, but nevertheless they can be integrated into your daily experiences and you can take these creative abilities and build upon it your desires, your awarenesses, and it opens up all forms of life to you. Every question is answered, according to what you are able to contain and integrate and grow from.

I wish to bring this forth for several reasons. So much talk about whether Jeshua and I were married but I, Mary Magdalene tell you, that is such a small point when you truly consider what it is like to enter into the mystical marriage with your partner. This is truly the Grail, the physical body, that which is like a cup that contains your spiritual essence, your spiritual knowledge and the connection in a very real way with that being, that Source that created your soul. There is nothing more special, nothing more beautiful or satisfying or complete or whole than to take this journey.

I wish to bring this forth now, because I'm hoping that humanity is way beyond that knowledge that Jeshua and I were married, and in that knowledge acceptance, and I wish to focus on this, that part that makes you whole, because the energies that are coming forth to Earth now are making it possible for those who truly wish to understand themselves, to be able to move beyond that which ties them to Earth. It is like a door opening, and you are being invited to come forth, to journey, to understand who and what you are. You are so magnificent; more so than you have ever even contemplated, unless you have journeyed in this manner.

It is only through this journeying with your beloved and connecting energetically with Prime Creator, that you understand what is truly before you, who you are and why you're here. And if you have done this, I congratulate you on your accomplishment. If you have not done this yet, then I say keep faith as to what is before you, because it awaits you in the private recesses of your mind, and it will come full force to participate in your life, to give you fullness in this greatest journey of understanding, and I am excited for each and every one of you who focus your thoughts upon this possibility. Whether you have met your beloved or not, you can still take this journey. It is more full and complete and comforting if you have that partner that you can make this journey with, but if you do not, understand it is available to you, and work with it now, as this is one of our greatest gifts that our Creator has given to us, outside of the fact of being born in a physical body with all of its potential, with all of its possibilities, this is your greatest gift outside of that.

And so I beckon to you, I encourage you, look forward to this and work to that point of raising your kundalini. And this is Mary Magdalene, giving you this information, an invitation at this point in time. And so it is.

Blessings, Joy, Love and Peace.
