

Messages for the June 2011 solstice

Today is Saturday, 18 June 2011 and I'm here to take the messages in relation to the coming June solstice. This date, you may realise represents some 18 months to run until the December 21st 2012 solstice, which is that date that the Mayan Calendar has pointed to for so long. And the first to come forth with a message in relation to this event is Jeshua, and let us see what he has to say.

My dear friends, this solstice as Richard mentioned represents some 18 months to run to that wondrous event that will unfold, or begin to unfold upon your planet with that solstice of December 2012, that event pointed to not only by the Mayan calendar but indeed many other traditions, as has been pointed out by a number of authors. As you have understood from some of our previous messages, the preparation that needs to be undertaken for humanity involves three key steps - acknowledging your Creator, clearing your negative karmic past for which the karmic clearing command has been provided, and to undertake the rejuvenation of your physical body for which the rejuvenation command has been provided, although as of this moment that command is not active.

And I wish to tell you that the energies that are coming forth with this June solstice of 2011 will be the energies that will finally bring forth that rejuvenation trigger, the activation of that rejuvenation command which plays such an important role in the preparation of humanity. Not only does it assist humanity to prepare for Ascension but also it is the coming forth of rejuvenation among humanity that will be the trigger that will alert others to what is unfolding. Few are currently aware of it; however the coming forth of rejuvenation is the trigger that will awaken humanity in general to what is unfolding, because this trigger has been programmed into the subconscious of every person upon the planet. They are not currently aware of this as I say, however it will be a great shock to them when they see people initially beginning to step forth in this rejuvenated, perfected physical format that will come forth, and the trigger for this command to come forth will be the rejuvenation of the physical body of Carolyn.

Some of you are aware of the incredibly difficult journey that she has walked to be able to bring this forth. There are many reasons for these challenges and I will not go through them here other than to mention that what she has been through to bring this forth for humanity is almost indescribable. The energies of this event are those which will finally see the end of this suffering; and for many, not just for Carolyn, this event is not before time; and so the energies of this event will see this transformation come forth. It is perhaps this event above all others that the energies of this solstice will bring forth. Yes, they contribute to the other things that I have already spoken about in regard to the changes that will begin to unfold upon the planet, but for the most part these are being more directly addressed by the broader energies of these events occurring over the 30 days (from June 1 to July 1). It is this rejuvenation of Carolyn's physical body and the activation of that rejuvenation command which is above all the focus of the energies of this June solstice, and so I ask you to watch for the evidence to come forth, because we have finally reached that moment when it indeed will be with you. And so it is.

There is another with a message for us in regard to this solstice, and this is Mother God, and she is here and she is saying;

My dear children, I cannot tell you what joy the unfolding of this event, the unfolding of the rejuvenation of Carolyn's physical body and the activation of this rejuvenation command represents. It is a moment of great joy, not only for me but for many others in the cosmos. There has been so much that has had to be undertaken to reach this moment, so much on so many levels, so much energetic preparation and also so much preparation in the work that Carolyn and Richard have been doing to get to this moment, and it has been an incredibly arduous path for the two of them. And so it is with great joy that I celebrate this moment, albeit a little prematurely because the solstice is not yet with you, but it is the energies of this solstice which will see this transformation come forth.

I cannot tell you the joy that I am experiencing knowing this is about to unfold. It is the true trigger which will begin the preparation of humanity in earnest for what is about to unfold in your very near future. As it has been said, you have some 18 months of your time to run before that December 2012 solstice, and this may seem a very short time and in many ways it is, however know that all those who choose this path will be given the opportunity to participate. There is enough time for this to be undertaken and you will see this, and indeed all the other steps that need to be put in place as humanity and the planet prepare. Yes, there will be dislocation. Yes, there will be disruption of many types, but these all have their place, they all have their reasons, and as you choose to participate in the preparation process, as you experience both of these commands if you have not already done so, or the rejuvenation command if you have already experienced the karmic clearing command, as you do this you will find life unfolding in a very different manner in front of you after this process is complete. It is a time of magic that is about to unfold upon your planet, along with a time of challenge for those who have not chosen this path. Much disruption but also much joy will be part of your world as a result of the energies of this solstice and the energies of this 30 day period, and so it is with great joy that I leave you to await the unfolding of these events. And so it is.
