

Messages for the Solar Eclipse – January 4th 2011

Today is December 31st, the last day of the year of 2010, and Richard and I have gathered to take the information regarding the new moon and the solar eclipse for the beginning of January 2011, which comes in on January 4th; and the first individual that wishes to come and give information about this new platform of energy that comes into the Earth plane is Jeshua, and his words will be brought forth by Richard.

And Jeshua is here, and he is saying;

This is a powerful event to begin your new year of 2011, this year when you could say the countdown in earnest begins for our preparation, or your preparation for the end of 2012 and beyond, because this year sees the evidence come forth into the public eye you could say, into the physical dimension where it can no longer be ignored or denied. This event, this solar eclipse on 4th January closes the door on a powerful period of energy which has been coming to the planet since the December solstice, and it is simply ending this period of ramping you could say, rather than perhaps closing the door. It is ending this cycle of ramping of energy. There has been a great deal of energy flowing to the planet over this period of time, and its flow in a way has been enhanced by the presence of Christmas in the middle of all of this, not because it represents my birth date in truth but simply it reflects this time of love and giving that has grown up around the celebration of what is notionally taken to be my birthday; and so these energies of love and generosity and compassion have played their role in enhancing the effect of the energies that have flowed forth through this period. So in one sense, as I say this date acts as a boundary, the ending of this period of ramping, you could say.

On another level, it is in and of itself a doorway because it is this doorway, if you will through which the emergence of the changes which will finally begin to flow forth will step, because the foundations are coming into place very quickly for all of the changes to come forth; and there are many aspects to these foundations. Some of them are preparations that the planet has been doing, some of them are preparations that have been happening within your financial systems, some of them are the preparations that have been happening to build the platform upon which the broad based karmic clearing and rejuvenation processes for people in general will begin to come forth; the preparation work has for the most part been completed for that to occur. And so many pieces have been coming into place throughout the last two years in particular, and so the energies of this event herald the coming forth of all of these changes into the public arena.

It is the time of both the wake-up calls for humanity and for the changes to begin to flow forth. Both of these things will happen in parallel, and so this, my friends is the doorway event when all of this will begin to come forth in its truth in your dimension. And so it is.

My awareness is turning to some other individuals now, and the next one who wishes to come forth and comment on what Jeshua has discussed is Isis. She comes forth in her regality as the Queen of Healing, as she was upon the Earth in many moments of bringing forth healing to the human race. It has been an undertaking that she has become involved in from the very beginning of the history here on this planet. Even though her first incarnation is technically known as her incarnation in Atlantis, for truth she was in the etheric surrounding the Earth plane and was available in many instances when healing was required for the planet as the crust cooled, as new life started to find its way in the cooling process, and the many attempts by the creator gods to bring forth the perfect image, as far as they could, in that particular time of development of the human race.

As you know if you follow the scientific aspect of this, there were many attempts to bring forth a perfected human being. Some of them failed, and eventually the activity continued until what was brought forth was what we know of today as the human body. What we don't know is there were ups and downs even in that development. But know that through all of these attempts by the creator gods, a spiritual soul did not exist in all of those bodily forms. It wasn't until the creator gods felt that human form was as perfected as it could be along that part of the journey, and the vehicle was waiting for the soul to be infused into that physical form. So there were Isis, other healers such as Mother God, whose interest was in this project also, and there was a long list of those who worked to heal, to prepare, to make way an avenue where spirit could be blended into the physical form and a new page in development to be turned.

The physical form gives an opportunity to the soul to express itself in ways that it cannot express itself in strictly the spiritual levels. It is that hard, you might say substance of the physical body that plays and interplays with spiritual abilities, that sings the songs of another layer of perfection. And it was speech, the emotional system, love could be expressed in a way that it couldn't be expressed in the spiritual levels; and so the physical form came forth. And for those who understand or at least know somewhat about the development of the human form, you know that it came to a high point in Atlantis, and because of internal conflicts, you might say things were turned back until there was a great Fall in awareness and the particles on this plateau, you might say became very dense, very compacted so that there was not memory. Memory was cut from the human consciousness and they did not understand from whence they came or where they were going.

And so the energies that Jeshua spoke of are very pertinent to this picture, because it is a turning point where there will be the introduction of a method whereby there will become more spaces that will be allowed into the depths of these very dense spaces. There will be more light and in that, more of your spiritual inheritance will come forth; and it is the time where memory will begin. For some, memory has already begun; but memory, my friends is so important, and to go within and to remember has a great importance because with that, you will be able to grasp the spiritual gifts that are part of your soul, that are part of the layer around your energy field that is directly connected to the spiritual experience. And so Jeshua spoke of the energy, I am speaking of the next step as those energies are connected to the physical form and to the spiritual aspect.

And with that, I bring forth Mother God. I introduce her to you. She is the Queen beyond all aspects of the divine feminine, and she is here to tell you of the importance of this moment. And Mother God says;

My beloved friends, this is the beginning of a historic moment. We have waited such a long time for that moment when the spiritual aspects of soul will begin to raise its awareness within the human body. It has been such a long journey, and I acknowledge my children have suffered so much from the dark, because truly it was the dark that was in the center of this experience, where The Fall in awareness is concerned; and this is the moment when we have waited so long to see some of these things turn, to see where there will be enough spaces in between the particles that we will be able to see the connection of the spiritual form to the physical form.

This is no small undertaking, because once you start to be able to bring forth that knowledge of this connection between the spiritual forces and the physical forces, you will start to understand who you are. You will also start to remember that journey of how you came in those early days, and yes, even what you have suffered, but more important than that, the glory and the magnificence, for the reason in which you came; to understand what spirit can do in the bodily form. You will be accessing this, because what the goal is, is to bring these heavenly forces of spirit, of those abilities into the plane of the physical. Make no mistake. This truly is bringing Heaven down to Earth, and it will make a change, a great change among humanity, where it is the beginning of love, not only being expressed, but love being lived and accepted, rather endorsed by all those that will be able to soon see the connection between the spiritual soul that you are and the physical form.

The link between these two will become within your awareness very soon, and as it starts to become involved in your awareness, you will see it harden, so it will not seem so etheric, but rather there will be matter where the physical form actually meets the spiritual abilities, the spiritual energy, the spiritual information, and in a sense you will become like gods, because your abilities will so far outshine what you are able to accomplish. And the reason for this is that the link between these two forces, the spiritual body and the physical body; that link, that link my friends will bring forth the abilities that you had in spirit and connect them to the abilities that you have as you are in form, physical form that is. There has not been another time when that has existed, except in the very early beginnings of Atlantis. It took a downward movement. Much was lost, but you will gain back what the DNA once held; and in that connection, the DNA will expand and blossom, so all of those particles of DNA that your scientists call junk particles will blazon forth in its abilities, and humanity will seem like gods in their abilities. And so it is.
