

Universal Solstice Messages 2010

Today is Tuesday, December 14th (2010) and Richard and I are here in the presence of beings who wish to give us information pertaining to the Universal Solstice, and Richard will be the first one to come and bring forth Jeshua.

And Jeshua is here, and he is saying;

This Universal Solstice may seem a strange thing to acknowledge upon your planet, this date of 12/12, which has just passed you by, in a sense. However it is a date which is important upon your planet and indeed as a result, on a broader basis within the solar system in particular. The two of you have taken messages on this date in the last two years, and this one in particular is way more significant, way more powerful than those previous events.

Firstly, this event energetically is a moment of preparation for the very powerful event which awaits you in a week from today and that is the December 2010 solstice, the Winter Solstice in the Northern Hemisphere and as you may be aware this year, it coincides with a full moon and an Eclipse, and so this is a very powerful date, very powerful indeed. And so in part what is happening or indeed has for the most part happened with this Universal Solstice is that energies have been sent forth which assist what will unfold with that solstice event in a week's time.

In addition to that, there are events which are finally beginning to unfold which will see the awakening of humanity in general to what is unfolding at the end of 2012 and beyond, and that is the action in earnest, you could say for the Ascension process, followed by the Ascension process itself. What I'm referring to is the final coming forth of the rejuvenation process. There have been many elements in this process. There have been many energies that have been sent through many gateways to assist and indeed to, on one level ensure that rejuvenation would come forth; and yet there have been aspects of this coming forth, you could say which had not been addressed and these are being addressed with these energies. The final doors for interference with the one in particular who will introduce rejuvenation to the planet, and that is Carolyn, that interference which has had many, many aspects to it and has been extraordinarily debilitating to her, that interference is being brought to an end; and you can examine how that is occurring on many levels, but in truth it is unfolding finally because of what is unfolding, what is coming forth with this Universal Solstice. So that is the key element that is occurring with this Universal Solstice; the final closing of those doors, so that all that has been planned will begin to come forth.

And I want to remind those of you who have been following our messages for some time and those of you who are listening to this message for the first time, that the coming forth of rejuvenation upon the planet is the key trigger which will begin to awaken humanity to what is unfolding. So many of you that are tracking this information have been awakening over a period of time and have become aware of what's unfolding at the end of 2012 and beyond, and have become frustrated that those around you have no interest or understanding of what is unfolding and think you're either a little crazy or very crazy for pursuing these notions, and that is because humanity in general has not yet received its wake-up call. It has not yet received the trigger which is programmed into the consciousness of every human being upon the planet, and that trigger is the coming forth of rejuvenation of the physical body; not just winding back the years but bringing forth a perfection in that body, and an expression of grace and peace that will astound those who witness such ones, because this is the trigger that will awaken humanity.

There is no context within the consciousness of humanity today that can accommodate this event, this unfolding. Your science has no parameters that can explain these events. None. There are no religious traditions which hold this unfolding. There are some spiritual traditions and related skills and abilities which have embraced the ability to prevent the ageing of the physical body or indeed reverse it if individuals are willing to seek those skills and abilities out and to practise them, and that has been done for thousands of years upon the planet. However even those traditions do not accommodate what is about to unfold, because as I said this process involves the rejuvenation of the physical body, it also embodies bringing forth a perfection in that physical body regardless of the state of that body today or the state of it at the chosen age that the individual wishes to return to, and it also embodies bringing forth the first phase of what is known as the Adam Kadmon physical body, that form of the body that will be present beyond Ascension. This has never happened before, and yet all of this is programmed into the physical body of every human being upon the planet. This is not something which is foreign to the body. Indeed, the consciousness of the physical body of everyone upon the planet that is in truth human has programmed into it this understanding of what needs to unfold and how to go about that unfolding. It is programmed into the consciousness of the physical body and the body itself. It has been long set up for this to unfold, and so it is about to begin, my friends. It truly is finally about to begin. And so it is.

Carolyn - The next one who is to come forth is Mother God. There is great grace and solemnity about her appearance. There is a sweetness in her demeanour and the best that I can say, a loving grace surrounds her; and when I look upon her, I feel this great confidence of her ability, nobility and understanding and love for humanity. And so I speak to you today out of her lovingness for each and every one of you, because that is the soul essence that I'm feeling, this great love and compassion for each one of you; and as you hear my words, see if you can search for the sense of that love, because there is a sense of the home. Home is in her energy. It is like the hearth baking the bread, the desire to feed the family, to look after their welfare. That is the sense of what I feel about her, this great desire to see that all of her children are comfortable, cared for and loved. Connect to that if you can, and I will tell you her words as she expresses them to me;

My children, I have loved you from the very beginning. There was no thought, no question as to what I would do for you. I was there at your creation, you know. I saw your souls being formed. I heard the command to go forth and experience, and you did this. And as you went through your many experiences, in some of them you suffered, and it pained me to see you suffer, but then I knew, I understood that in your suffering there would not only be grace, but a strength would come from those sufferings that you do not understand; and so I watched and I waited for this moment, and it is finally here. I knew beforehand that all of my children upon Earth would fall to a very dense dimension that you call the third dimension, and we were not certain that you would survive the depths of that denseness, but you did, and you survived with just a fraction of your glory, just a fraction.

And it is time now to come back, to come back to what you were and to go beyond; and that is my message, my friends who are my children. You have suffered greatly in so many lifetimes. You don't remember them all and perhaps that is a good thing, but what you have gleaned from all those experiences has made you strong, invincible. You might not feel that at the moment, but it is the truth. In a sense you might look upon this as a graduation day. We'll talk of this more in the New Year, when you start connecting with your gifts. We will give you guidance. Know that my love surrounds each and every one of you, and I'm here for you always.

The next woman coming forth is Isis, and I use the term woman because she comes forth not as the child, not as the teenager, but the woman who has accumulated all of her skills in her femininity and that is how I see her; this advanced being who understands all of the roles that she plays; and when I say play, I don't mean something that she has made up but rather all that the mature, spiritual being holds within her heart; the grace, the knowledge, experience, understanding; she comes forth on that wave, bearing all of those abilities in complete harmony, with those abilities and the confidence that that harmony brings. She comes forth as the female, the woman, the epitome of what the woman can bring forth. And so she says;

As you have been told, this is a very important moment in the history of humankind. We have all stood in the background, anticipating this moment, knowing that this moment would be here, and now it is finally surfacing in your awareness. More important than your awareness is the abilities that it brings. Mother God spoke of coming forth next year and discussing this with you, because this is a very nurturing moment. It is like the seed that sprouts, or the stork of grain. It has been in the ground all of these years, just waiting for the right moment and the moment has come and the seed has split, and out of that seed comes that new growth, ever reaching for the sun, ever moving in the completeness of what it was designed to do; and that is where you are at this moment.

Understand that the perfection is there. It was programmed into the seed, but like the seed it must be nurtured. There must be the rain, the sun, it must be the right temperature; and it sprouts and it comes forth and it produces. As I said, that is where you are at the moment. So don't be discouraged if you don't understand everything yet. That will come; and in a few short days, less than 30, you will start to feel this growth. Be aware of it, because as you become aware of it, you will expect more. It is like the giver of the gifts and the recipient of the gifts; the more gifts that are given, the recipient expects more, and in that expectation more is given. Think of the mother or the father with the child. The child wants more; the parent is willing to give more. If there is no expectation, you might say it tempers the gifts. So be aware of what is within. Be aware of what is coming forth. Become aware of what you are becoming. We will come back in less than 30 days. Expect us.
