

The interference by the dark with well intentioned, dedicated lightworkers.

Question from Carolyn Evers.

Lord Metatron – I know that you're there, working to help and to guide us and so we ask this question looking for your guidance so we understand how to handle these situations because we have all these people on conference calls who look to us for guidance and we need to know the answers to these questions.

How does the dark use someone without their knowing, without their intent, how can the dark use someone without their intent and move in and harm someone else? Because in this situation it wasn't XXXX's intention but yet the dark sneaked in.

Answer from Lord Metatron.

This is really a question that goes to the heart of the matter and it is the reason why so many channellers who have such high intentions and integrity have been taken over by the dark and have processed messages that are diametrically opposed to the light, yet they believe they are working in the light.

And so where you are, is you are at the doorway to some very important and basic information that, yes, you do need to know and actually, yes, that you do need to teach.

And it is because the energies now are higher (in vibrational frequency) that they move faster. A lower energy is slower. The higher the energy becomes, the faster it becomes and so people are living in a world today where – (he is showing me the blinking on and off) I don't know that I can explain it – I know that you – I believe you understand this, Richard – how reality as we understand it – consciousness blinks on and off very quickly – this is how we experience life in a dense world like we are in.

(Background – Consciousness is not continuous, even though it seems to us that it is. It actually blinks on and off very rapidly. Modern physics has told us this.)

So what he is explaining is that in a lower wave when you blink on it is a longer line, so to speak, if you want to look at it as a line and the higher up (in vibrational frequency and dimension) you go it blinks on and off even faster.

Which means in a lower dimension the person's consciousness exists longer and in a higher dimension there's shorter space. So in that shorter space it is as if you are holding onto your consciousness for a shorter duration. And it is in between that blinking on and off – where the shorter duration is - that the dark is able to move in between that sequence. Now they can move in between the sequence at a lower rate but also the person, the individual who has experienced reality in that lower rate is more conscious, can become more conscious of a change.

In other words, if they watch it and they're being influenced they will be more conscious of the influence at the lower vibration. At the higher vibration it is harder to be aware because they're holding onto that reality for such a shorter period of time and the higher you go in vibration the more subtle it becomes, this intrusion into your world by the dark.

So the vibration of a very – the high vibration of an individual can be more compromised the higher you become.

And the person who knows that they have attained a higher vibration is not as guarded because they think they're doing all they need to do – they protect themselves – they feel they're on the right path – and so they're not as aware of it, perhaps, that there is a wake of darkness around them. They don't become aware of it because they're concentrating more on where their heart is leading them. And so there are many well-meaning individuals now – they have lost that perspective- that it is not because their intention isn't to take them on the right path – but they're in a new vibrational level and they're not as aware of how that feels because the dark felt differently on a lower dimension.

On a higher dimension the dark has a different sense in your energy and so until an individual starts to recognise that, they fall into a trap and this is what is happening. This is why I set up that first call about discernment and I am finding that we are just starting to scratch the surface on that so we are going to have to work with discernment a little more because there are many lightworkers that are being compromised now.

And thank you for asking the question.

We will have more on this later.

We are trying to hold together the base of our lightworkers and it is for this very reason that we set up Metatron Minutes and so many of the lightworkers out there think that this isn't something important enough to really recognise. But we find it extremely important and we are going to be focussing on this.
